ABOUT

AMY ALCOTT

EXCELLENCE, ARTISTRY AND ULTIMATE PREPARATION

Amy Alcott is a champion golfer and member of the LPGA and World Golf Hall of Fame. She is an entertaining speaker, a highly networked businesswoman and creative leader. She competed worldwide on the LPGA Tour and now travels the globe to promote the game, lead corporate outings for global brands, and serve as a keynote speaker and storyteller to countless audiences.

Amy learned to play golf on her front lawn in West Los Angeles and has evolved into a world-class champion and a tireless promoter of the game.

Amy has gained invaluable business acumen by working with C-suite executives, serving on numerous boards of directors, supporting philanthropic initiatives, working with the media, and authoring several books. She also serves as golf ambassador for Employco USA and is part of Employco's executive team.

Amy harnesses her entrepreneurial spirit and passion for business through Amy Alcott GOLF, her event consulting and golf course design company. She also authored numerous books, including "The Leaderboard: Conversations on Golf and Life."

Amy's on-course skills and strategy, combined with her vibrant, inquisitive personality and her spirit to learn and lead, provide Amy with a unique perspective, knowledge and insight to share with business leaders across a spectrum of industries.

Her success and colorful personality set the course early on for her role as spokesperson for a distinctive list of blue chip companies and charity organizations. Armed with astute observations and innumerable stories about golf's personalities, Amy has a keen sense of humor and a gift of storytelling that brings joy to audiences around the world.
